

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A golf club protective guard serves to protect the appearance and lifetime value of golf clubs. The inventive device is a transparent 4 to 5 mil vinyl adhesive strip that is designed to fit the contours of the club, and that when 5 attached to the head of a club provides an almost invisible protective barrier against abrasions caused by miss-hits during the act of hitting the ball.